INSURANCE

Larson · King has significant experience in complex and large exposure insurance litigation, and London arbitration. The Firm presently serves as national counsel for a variety of carriers and actively pursues coverage for a number of policyholders on significant exposures. As with other substantive areas within the firm, Larson · King believes that the multi-sided perspective that we can offer provides unmatched results for our clients.

Larson · King deals with the most cutting edge commercial liability issues for its insurer and policyholder clients and its experience covers a wide variety of types of insurance coverage and risk areas. Key examples include:

- Current representation of a Fortune 500 company with recoveries approaching $2 billion in mass tort coverage claims.
- Representation of a Fortune 500 financial institution in recoveries in excess of $100 million.
- Client counseling and claim presentations to insurers resulting in resolution without litigation.
- Representation of carriers in adjusting and resolving catastrophic storm loss claims valued in excess of $50 million.
- Representation of insurers in defense of environmental coverage claims exceeding $300 million.

CYBER RISK COVERAGE

Our attorneys have extensive experience advising insured clients on the wide range of policies and endorsements available to cover emerging cyber risks.

- We employ our decades of coverage experience to evaluate potential gaps and limitations in clients' existing coverage.
- We work with clients in acquiring cyber liability insurance coverage appropriate to their line of business and the amount of risk they want to assume.
- We review and negotiate modifications to policy language to better match and allocate risk and help clients navigate the application process in order to minimize the risk of future coverage disputes.
- In the event of a dispute, clients benefit from our vast experience representing clients in high-stakes coverage disputes throughout the United States and internationally.

Whether representing policyholders or insurers in routine coverage matters or large-scale loss claims, Larson · King offers its clients the unique perspectives gained from years of experience handling complex insurance coverage litigation in almost every state and federal jurisdiction around the country, and in international dispute resolution forums.
